

Check out all the great books on my branch!

SQUAWKER'S LIBR-EYRIE

Monthly Kid Picks from Evanston Public Library

November 2021

In November by Cynthia Rylant

A lovely introduction for young kids about what happens in nature --and in our personal lives during November.

Best for ages 3-6. - Martha

Where is the dragon? by Leo Timmers

The king has a nightmare about a dragon. He sends out the knights to save the realm! Best for ages 4-8. - Linda

Boxitects by Kim Smith

This adorable, STEAM centered picture book is a wonderful introduction to art, design and importance of friendship. Best for ages 3-8. - Kennedy

Big and Little: A story of opposites by Cheryl Ripley

Using pairs of opposite words to tell the story, the reader follows Big (Dog) and Little (Dog) as they experience their day together! One is timid, one is bold, can you guess who? Make sure to "read" the pictures too! - Jessica

The End of the Beginning: Being the adventures of a small snail (and an even smaller ant) by Avi

Deceptively simple, endearingly sweet, this beginning chapter book tells the tale of Avon the snail and Edward the Ant as they embark on a grand adventure along a tree branch. - Liz

Zeely by Virginia Hamilton

Virginia Hamilton is a must-read author! In this classic story, two children on a farm meet a mysterious woman. Just who is Zeely? Read this beautifully written novel and find out! - Brian

Unsettled by Reem Faruqi

Nurrah has a lot on her mind these days. She struggles to compete with her seemingly perfect brother, her beloved grandmother can no longer remember her name and her family just moved from Pakistan to Peachtree, Georgia. A beautiful novel-in-verse illustrating the power of family, friendship and community. - Liz

Snapdragon by Kat Leyh

Snap befriends her town's rumored "witch" in hopes of learning magic - and she learns about herself and her family in the process. This is a wonderful graphic novel full of diverse and relatable characters, a hard-to-put-down story, and so much charm and love. You will want to revisit these characters over and over. - Louise

Miss Minoes

This is a sweet family film from Holland. A cat is transformed into a young woman. She meets a young man who is a reporter and uses her feline powers to get information for him to break news stories in their small town! Rated PG. - Robin

FAMILY FUN

Funny Girl: Funniest. Stories. Ever. Edited by Betsy Bird

Need a good laugh? Look no further. This book is guaranteed to make you laugh out loud. This collection contains hilarious stories by funny female authors including Reina Telgemeier, CeCe Bell and Shannon Hale. - Liz

All Thirteen: The Incredible Cave Rescue of the Thai Boys Soccer Team by Christina Soontornvat

What a page turner! This Thai-American writer uses real interviews with the boys and their rescuers to tell this true story. Fast paced, thrilling, and full of information about cave diving and cave exploration - plus Thai history and culture so that you can fully understand the story. Would be a great family read aloud except the kids will rip it out of your hands and read it themselves to find out what happens! - Martha

Awesome Snacks and Appetizers (You're the Chef series)

by Katie Cornell

This series is great for those who want to learn how to cook. Each book has basic information about techniques, tools, kitchen safety, and yummy recipes. Having folks over for dinner? Try making cheesy fondue, spicy samosas, or caramel corn to munch on before the meal! - Kim

MOVIE NIGHT!

The Eagle Huntress

Thanks to excellent cinematography, this documentary about Aisholpan, a 13 year old living in Mongolia who defies tradition by being the first female eagle hunter in her family, soars. The film provides amazing access to her life and family. Watching her train her eagle and then participate in a monumental competition fascinates. - Brian

"EE-CHUP" REVIEWS

Check out these kid-to-kid recommendations!

Read any good books lately?

Check out REZ DOGS by Joseph Bruchac!

Lois Lane and the Friendship Challenge

by Grace Ellis & Brittney Williams

This book features a girl who wants to have a popular media website. Her friend helps her, then a twist. This book is great for comic lovers and advanced readers. - Ema, age 9

Annie, 6, recommends Rapunzel's Revenge

by Shannon Hale

I liked this book because it's adventurous. It made me feel like I was in it. This book is exciting because somebody is chasing another person.

An eyrie (pronounced "airy") is a special name for a bird of prey's nest. For many years, Squawker's eyrie, with the falcon's "scrape" style of nest, was at the library!

Tell us about a book YOU loved!
Email
library.squawker
@gmail.com

Keeper of the Lost Cities

by Shannon Messenger

This book has lots of great characters and it has a really great plot/storyline.

recommended by Finnie, age 11

Willow,
age 10,
recommends

Just Pretend

by Tori Sharp

This was a great book!
I give it 1
million stars, I recommend it!

Escape from Mr. Lemoncello's Library

by Chris Grabenstein

This book is about a library that is very new.
Kyle Keeley and his team have to escape it. I liked this book because it was fantasy, mystery, AND thriller. It was great too because it is a 5-book series.

recommended by Kennedy, age 10

