EVANSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY Racial Equity Task Force Meeting Minutes July 19, 2023

Members present: Heather Norborg, Esther Wallen, Joyce Miller-Bean, Michelle Khuu, Tiffany Edwards, Brenda Williams, Melissa Raman Molitor, Mariana Bojorquez (note taker)

Esther opened by reading the Land Acknowledgement.

Heather shared a link to the RETF book recommendation submission form which was requested at last month's meeting. The Library will use submissions from the RETF in a variety of ways (adding to the collection, public list of recommendations from the RETF, in newsletters and displays, etc.).

An update on the Director search was given by Esther and Heather. RETF volunteers were requested for one of the upcoming rounds of panel interviews. Heather will send a Doodle poll to the RETF volunteers with the potential interview dates. Esther also mentioned that she is still accepting suggested interview questions from the RETF members.

Joyce and Melissa recapped the June Board meeting discussion of the RETF recommendation to consider an engagement position focused on the Asian American community for the group. Discussion ensued about different ways new positions have been created in the library in the past, what type of data is required to support a new initiative, how to collect data in a culturally sensitive way, how RETF members can help keep this conversation going / increase awareness around the needs of the Asian American community in Evanston, and how RETF members can encourage / support library staff who are doing cultural programming.

The group decided to hold its September meeting in-person, with quarterly in-person meetings and the rest virtual.

Staff reports:

Spotlight on Services to Older Adults:

While many of our programs and services are enjoyed by adults of all ages, we also have some initiatives specifically intended for older adults.

Kate Jordan is our part-time Engagement Coordinator for Older Adults. She coordinates relationships with residential facilities and organizations that serve older adults, including bringing library services to external locations. She also coordinates many programs at both library locations. Bridget Petrites is a full-time Library Assistant who partners with Kate on some programs and also coordinates some other programs of interest to older adults at both locations. She also assists Julie Rand, who is a part-time Librarian who coordinates the Books on Wheels program, which uses volunteers to deliver library materials to homebound patrons, many of whom are older adults.

Partnerships

Kate coordinates relationships with organizations serving older adults, including:

- McGaw YMCA: Two annual EPL/YMCA tie-in days celebrating National Read a Book Day and National Reading Month (EPL cardholders could utilize their library cards to experience free days at the Y - each avg. 40 participants); two pop-up libraries; EPL table at their community events; The YMCA was engaged to co-sponsor and facilitate 4 aha! sessions (details below). YMCA staff member Alyson Mann offered quarterly balance checks to my site residents.
- CJE SeniorLife: Engaged to sponsor and facilitate 4 aha! Sessions (details below).
- Alzheimer's Association: (see Memory Care / Dementia Resources below)
- Mather Community Initiatives: Partnering on aha! and In-Person Memory Cafe facilitation (see below)

- Levy Center Book Clubs: Working with Connor Schwarz (COE Parks & Rec) to supply books and create a library card for the group.
- AgeOptions: Their grant covers our program supplies and stipends.

Monthly site visits - pop up libraries

- Kate visits six (6) senior residential sites each month:
 - Hill Arboretum Apartments
 - Victor Walchirk Apartments
 - Ebenezer Primm Towers
 - Jacob Blake Manor
 - Jane Perlman Apartments
 - Ann Rainey Apartments
- She makes approximately 60 phone calls to residents per month to remind them of the visits and take materials requests.
- She also visits these non-residential locations monthly:
 - Levy Senior Center
 - Fleetwood Jourdain Community Center

Foster Senior Group (FSG)

During the pandemic the library provided technology for members of this local African American Seniors club. Bridget, and later Kate, hosted weekly virtual meetings for them (average 40 attendees). As in-person events became possible, they also hosted bingo and other in-person activities at community events (ex. First Fridays) with the FSG (40-80 attendees). Now that the FSG has returned to regular in-person weekly meetings at the Fleetwood Jourdain Community Center, Kate attends their meeting once a month to bring a pop-up library, as mentioned above.

Memory Care / Dementia Resources

Kate partners with the Alzheimer's Association to host in-person monthly Dementia Caregiver Support Group meetings (avg 12 attendees) at the Main Library. She shares materials from the Library's Dementia Resource Center, and has facilitated the meeting.

Bridget and Kate co-facilitate a weekly Virtual Memory Cafe (avg 8 attendees) on Zoom. We're into our third year of the Virtual Memory Cafe, which began during the pandemic. Memory Cafes encourage social activity and engagement for those with memory changes and their care partners. Each week there is a different theme for our virtual cafe: music, armchair travel (attendees suggest the destination), etc. This online group continues to grow. In the last three months, we have been joined by a couple from Florida that found us online. Additionally, as some of our regulars face health challenges, continuing the virtual option has been vital for them. This is more than just a program, it is a community. Attendees will ask if they haven't seen someone in a few weeks and they will email to let us know they won't be able to attend that week due an appointment.

Kate also recently re-started the monthly In-Person Memory Cafe (sponsored by AgeOptions), on the 3rd Saturday of every month, in the Falcon Room at the Main Library. Topics will include: Fall Watercolors, Mind-Body Connection, Mitchell Museum Artifacts, Dance with DIME, Chair Yoga, Growing Up in the Philippines, Painting with Paper, Mindful Eating, Day of the Dead (with Mariana Bojorquez), Snow Globes, and seasonal sing-alongs. 22 people have attended with several repeat attendees.

Other Library Programs

Kate hosts monthly Aha! (active healthy aging) workshops:

- $\circ~$ A free group fitness program for ages 60+, sponsored by Age Options
- 2nd Tuesday of each month at the Robert Crown Center
- 26 people have attended with several repeat attendees
- Evanston area fitness practitioners, including McGaw YMCA, CJE SeniorLife, Club Pilates, Nia Chicago, Mather Community Initiatives, and Northside Boxing & Fitness.
- Topics include Mat Pilates, Strength & Balance, Bingocize, Zumba Gold, Nia, Otago, SAIL (Stay Independent and Active for Life), Chair Yoga, Boxing Basics, Line Dancing, Tai Chi and Fall Prevention, Pranayama Breathing and Sound Healing.

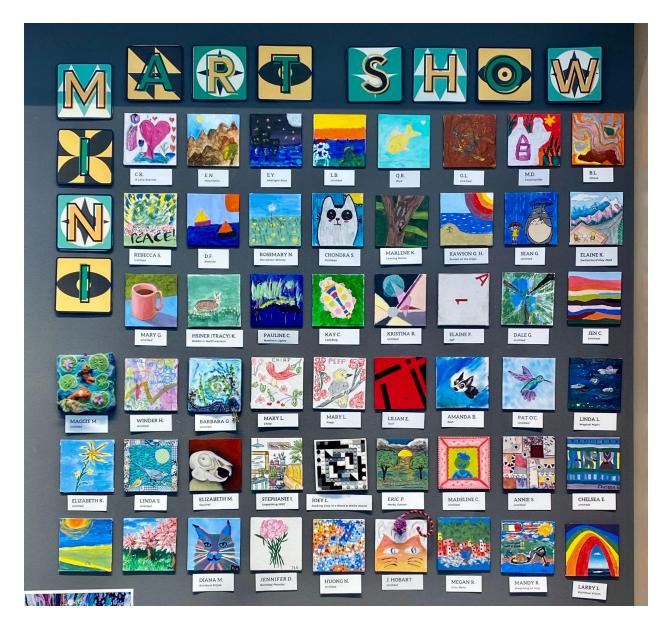

Bridget hosts monthly Art for Older Adults (55 & up) workshops:

- Monthly workshops at both the Main Library and Robert Crown, also sponsored by Age Options.
- Topics include: Urban sketching, Pop up card making, Sketching with water brushes, Museum series paint by numbers, Shibori-Tie dye with a twist (this is in partnership with the Mather Initiative), Life drawing (this was the suggestion of a workshop attendee earlier in the year), Sketching scenery, Ice dying/reverse tie dying (another program with the Mather Initiative)
- Feedback from attendees: "I am so impressed by the Art Series for Older Adults. The instructors have been phenomenal—true professionals! I'm also impressed by the high quality of materials, suggestions for moving forward with the medium and books that support what we've learned. The program is very well organized, the library staff welcoming and the company fantastic. Thanks so much for this wonderful series. I always feel so enriched when I leave."; "Both the facilitator and presenter were warm, welcoming and respectful. I have always thought that the senior population is an underserved and somewhat ignored part of the community. These outreach programs are beneficial."

Mini Art Show (MaryKate Schneider, Robert Crown Branch)

The Mini Art Kit and Show was available to adults of all ages and skill levels, with a specific number of kits set aside exclusively for older adults to have the opportunity to participate. We received a total of 48 submissions for the show, currently on display at Robert Crown, and have heard positive feedback from both patrons and participants. A number of older adults who took a kit home and exhibited work in the show have commented on how grateful they were for the opportunity and how excited they were to take part in similar future events.

Thursday Tech Tutorials

In addition to Technology Trainers with whom anyone can schedule a one-on-one 45 minute session, every Thursday we have a dedicated volunteer who teaches two virtual workshops introducing attendees to technology concepts. Anyone is welcome, but these are geared towards older adults. Some examples of topics include What is the Cloud?, Using Apple's iCloud Service, Learn More about Your Email, iPad/iPhone basics, etc.

Books on Wheels

Julie Rand coordinates this program which uses library volunteers to deliver books and other library materials to homebound patrons, many of whom are older adults. Registered patrons can receive deliveries once a month. They can either request specific titles or ask that library staff choose materials for them. Volunteers make deliveries and then return materials they are finished with at their next delivery. As of July 1, 2023, there were 134 patrons registered for this program, about 50 of whom are regular users, with others being occasional users. We have ten (10) volunteers who make deliveries to these patrons, some of whom live in residential facilities and others in private residences.

Patron Feedback of Note:

July 6 comment from a patron to thank Safety Monitor Antonio for his help when she needed to call a locksmith to open her car. Antonio stayed with her until they came. Our staff are helpful both inside and outside of the building!

July 8 comment from patron to Robert Crown Branch Library staff: "I just want you to know what a lovely library this is. We come here all the time and we just love it. You do so much ... you reach out to all of the people and bring us together... and it's so much more than I remember libraries ever being. Thank you for all you do!"
